The Advertiser-News
SOUTH

Newton High School Robotics Team Meets Lt. Gov.

PUBLISHED AUG 11, 2016 AT 11:55 AM (UPDATED AUG 11, 2016)

Lieutenant Governor Kim Guadagno talks with members of the Newton High School robotics team during a visit at the Sussex County Fair. At far right Congressman Scott Garrett (5th District of N.J.) also attended. Lieutenant Governor of New Jersey, Kim Guadagno met with the Newton High School robotics team at the Sussex County Fair on Monday, August 8th 2016. Ms Guadagno interacted with the team members as they spoke with her about science and engineering and demonstrated several machines built by the team.

Lieutenant Governor of New Jersey, Kim Guadagno met with the Newton High School robotics team at the Sussex County Fair on Monday, August 8th 2016. Ms Guadagno interacted with the team members as they spoke with her about science and engineering and demonstrated several machines built by the team.

Also attending the meeting were Congressman Scott Garrett (5th District of N.J.) and Senator Steven Oroho (24th Legislative District of New Jersey).

The Newton High School robotics team competes in several robotics competitions throughout the year.